

What is part of the program?

3 Core Modules (15 ECTS)*

„Forest and Global Change“ (WiSe, 1. Semester)

„Applied Environmental Statistics“ (WiSe, 1. Semester)

„Forest Sciences: Professional & Research Approaches“ (WiSe, 3. Semester)

Mandatory for ALL students of MSc Forest Sciences

10 Major-Modules (50 ECTS)*

These modules are specified by the major for which admission has been granted

Are offered in WiSe und SoSe, distributed via Semester 1 – 3.

Mandatory for all students of the corresponding major

Modules of other majors can not be taken

3 Individual Elective Modules (15 ECTS)*

The offer varies but is always announced in time.

Possible time slots: 1. Semester: Block after the lectures

2. Semester: last Block in the Semester

3. Semester: Block before and after the Semester

Semesterwise, according to overview

Mandatory Internship (10 ECTS)*

Min. 7 weeks full time (275h), national or international

Division in 2 parts of at least 3 weeks each possible

Ideal in the lecture free period between 2nd & 3rd semester

Professional relevance to the program and professional supervision required

Recognition takes place by submitting internship confirmation + evaluation

Masterarbeit (30 ECTS)*

required: min 60 ECTS on the transcript

Amount = 30 ECTS, Duration = 6 Months, language = English (or German)

Topic from the field of the Major

Students actively take care of supervision and topic themselves

At least one supervisor has to be from the faculty UNR

(*detailed information are found in the examination regulation)